Joan Jedell, who calls herself “the Warhol of the new millennium,” celebrates the fourth anniversary of her Hamptons Sheet with a Caribbean theme—sarongs encouraged. “We’ve got Alec Baldwin, Billy Joel, Christie Brinkley, the Hilton sisters, Luther Vandross—he’s really hot right now, he lost all this weight—and Denise Rich,” she said. What was the strangest thing that happened to her this summer? “The strangest thing that happened to me was the strangest thing that happened to Lizzie Grubman! We created valet parking so that doesn’t happen. It’s one V.I.P. tent—no special V.I.P. area!”
